Press release

Boulogne-Billancourt, June 12, 2017

Carmila achieves another milestone in its development with the approval by the shareholders of Carmila and Cardety of the merger of their companies

The shareholders of Cardety and Carmila meeting today at extraordinary general meetings have approved the proposed merger of their companies on the basis of a merger parity of 1 Cardety share for 3 Carmila shares, resulting in the absorption of Carmila by Cardety.

The merged entity was renamed « Carmila » and the new shares resulting from the merger will be admitted to trading on June 14, 2017, on the A compartment of the regulated market of Euronext in Paris under ISIN code FR0010828137 (CARM Mnemonic Code). The company benefits from the French SIIC (Société d’Investissement Immobilier Cotée) regime, the REIT tax efficient French regime.

Cardety and Carmila had previously signed a merger agreement on April 4, 2017 to create a major listed property company dedicated to the development and value creation of leading shopping centers in France, Spain and Italy, building on a strategic partnership with the Carrefour Group, the reference food retailer and one of the world’s leading retailers.

This merger allows the creation of the 3rd listed real estate company of shopping centers in Continental Europe with a portfolio of 205 assets with an appraisal value of 5.4 billion euros1.

Following the holding of the two Extraordinary General Meetings, the Board of Directors of the Company, in its new configuration2, confirmed the new composition of the Board of Directors and its Committees and appointed Jacques Ehrmann as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Géry Robert-Ambroix and Yves Cadelano as Deputy Chief Executive Officers.

1 Pro forma Gross Asset Value including transfer taxes, as of March 31, 2017.
2 as described in paragraph 14.1.1 of Annex II to document E, registered by the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF) under number E. 17-040
In this context, the company initiated a refinancing of its bank debt in order to extend its maturity while enlarging the pool of banks. On June 9, 2017, it received firm commitment letters from 10 banks for a total amount of Euro 770 million of drawn debt and Euro 1 009 million of RCF. Documentation is expected to be signed by June 16, 2017.

The average maturity of bank financing will, thus, increase from 3.5 years to 4.7 years, an increase of 1.2 years.

For Carmila, this merger constitutes a major milestone in its development as it benefits from the additional financial flexibility conferred by its status as a listed real estate company.
