Carmila successfully issues €300 million in 6.5-year bonds with a coupon of 1.625%, optimising its debt profile at attractive conditions

Boulogne-Billancourt, 24 November 2020

Carmila today successfully placed €300 million worth of 6.5-year bonds maturing on 31 May 2027 and paying a coupon of 1.625%. With an order book of €1.65 billion, the issue was 5.5-times oversubscribed, enabling Carmila to obtain an attractive price compared to its bonds listed on the secondary market, and to place the new bonds with high-quality investors.

Carmila is using the proceeds to redeem €96.7 million worth of bonds maturing in 2023 and 2024 tendered to the offer launched on 16 November 2020 and closed on 20 November 2020, as well as to pay down a portion of its bank debt maturing in June 2024.

This operation is yet another demonstration of Carmila's ability to access the debt markets at attractive conditions. It also reflects Carmila's dynamic debt management strategy of (i) optimising its bond maturities, (ii) limiting the surplus cash generated by the operation, and (iii) managing its borrowing costs.
